“You are mine!”

Christmas News.

Rose: “I began to live and work when Fr LUIGI GIUSSANI told me “You are mine!” He did not know me; it was evident that I was nothing! But I felt wanted and desired. It was as if his gaze was telling me, I want to stay with you, you have infinite value! From this gaze everything was born. In fact, I discovered that I was not defined by my limits and shortcomings!

From this gaze I started foreseeing meaning for my life; it was as if light shown on everything. I started discovering the truth of my life, and here started attractiveness, a tenderness for my very life and for the life of the others... I started living and working when I knew how to respond concretely to the question of whom I am? When the question has precise faces with names, I became free!”
